Mr. and Mrs. Jack Parfett and family have returned to their home in Edmonton after visiting with Mrs. Parfett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Tom, for ten days.

The melting snows and run-off from the hills is doing considerable damage to the irrigation ditch again this year, causing it to overflow its banks and doing a great deal of damage to the roads and breaking dam banks of local farmers.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Long, and Mrs. Clements and Frances drove to High River on Saturday, March 22, to attend the wedding of their niece, Miss Donalda DeBoice, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis DeBoice. A reception for 106 was held in the Memorial Centre.

Red Cross Hears Convention Report

The Red Cross executive met in the Legion rotunda last Wednesday, with president Mrs. John Mitchell presiding.

It was learned the Blood Donor Clinic would be held in August rather than in June as originally planned.

Rev. E. A. Justice, delegate to the provincial convention at Edmonton, gave his report, which included the information that more money is spent in Alberta on Red Cross projects than is raised by provincial subscription alone. The Red Cross branch was asked to co-operate on a local level with civil defence authorities. The women's work is to be done to a standard pattern to prevent unevenness in the quality of the work and several excellent films on this work are available from the University Extension Department. Criticism of the fact that all must state their age at Blood Clinics was voiced by a lady delegate. The delegates were moved by the report of the doctors of the Crippled Children's Hospital and other medical men as they told of individual cases where the free treatment had proved invaluable. There were about 150 delegates at the meeting from all over the province.

Two couples of the same family, who were married ten days apart fifty years ago, observed their Golden Wedding anniversary with a two-day celebration last weekend. On Saturday, March 29, which marked 50 years of marriage for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis of Vulcan, "Open House" was held at their home, when despite poor road conditions more than 125 neighbors and friends as well as members of the family, called to wish them a happy anniversary. Others who were unable to be present phoned their congratulations.

Five community gifts as well as many individual ones were proffered the bride and groom of 50 years ago. Also many beautiful bouquets and baskets of flowers were presented to them.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis were assisted in receiving their guests by their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Douglass of Minot, N. Dak., the other honored bride and groom of half a century. Serving of tea to the guests was very ably conveyed by the ladies of the immediate Davis family, assisted by the sisters of the two couples.

Present for the occasion were all the immediate Davis family with the exception of one granddaughter and the two great grandchildren. Those present were the couples' only son, Roy, and his wife and daughter, Marjorie of Portland, Ore.; Mrs. Guy (Cliff) Heather and baby daughter, Vancouver, B.C.; Mrs. Ernest (Mae) Lind and daughter, and Miss Margaret Davis, Calgary; and Mrs. R. (Isla) Lundgren and her husband and family of the district.

On Sunday a suitable decorated car transported the two honored couples to High River, where the Josted orchestra were waiting to greet them, at the entrance to the town and escorted them to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Douglass. Here places were laid for 50 members of the family and five other very old and dear friends.

Beautifully decorated tables were set up in the new garage, where streamers of gold and white wedding bells, and evergreen boughs, presented a most festive atmosphere.

Alan Smith of Calgary returned thanks. After dinner the brides and grooms together cut a decorated wedding cake, commencing a half hour of toasts and presentations. L. A. Douglass was Master of Ceremonies, while Douglas Smith, nephew of both couples, proposed a toast to Mr. and Mrs. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Douglass. This was responded to by Roy Davis of Portland, and another nephew, Stuart Douglass, on behalf of the family and friends, presented each couple with gifts. To Mr. and Mrs. Davis he presented a torchier lamp and Mr. and Mrs. Douglass with a tooled leather-bound guest and photo book, product of the High River Leather Works. Also a number of personal presents were received by both couples. Each guest of honor, in turn very graciously expressed their thanks for all the kindnesses shown them. The lunch hour closed with all joining in singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows." The guests then adjourned to the Douglass living room, where a pleasant entertainment was presented by the grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Davis, consisting of a mock wedding performed by Lois Lundgren, Luella Lind, Masters David and Lawrence Lundgren, all attired in fashions of 50 years ago; two tap dances given by Luella Lind; vocal trio by Luella Lind, Lois Lundgren and Marjorie Davis; recitation by David Lundgren and a solo by great nephew, Doug Smith.

Frank Davis and Irene Douglass were married in 1902 at Carthage, Mo., coming to Canada to homestead five miles north west of the present site of Vulcan, three years later. The stone walls of the basement of the Davis' first home here still stand as a tribute to the hard work undertaken by the early district pioneers. Later, Mr. and Mrs. Davis moved to the Reid Hill district, where they continued to farm until retiring to town, three years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Davis are proud grandparents of eight grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

A variety of business matters were dealt with, including the initiation of two new members, Mrs. Witt and Mrs. Loucks, by Mrs. Sales. The new ladies were warmly welcomed by the members. One new application for membership was also read and duly voted upon. The secretary will notify this candidate to be present at the next meeting for initiation.

A letter of invitation was read from the Claresholm Auxiliary inviting the Vulcan members to the Zone Rally, being held there Wednesday, April 23, at which time a good attendance was requested.

Letters of appreciation were read from the Veterans hospital for playing cards sent to the men and for another shipment of used nylons, from which disabled veterans make rugs for sale.

An amendment of one of the local By-laws was voted on, and will be presented, to the Legion branch for ratification. With a view to refreshing the memories of older members and acquainting the newer ones with them, the local By-laws were read through by Mrs. Marshall.

At the close of the business session a draw was made for the merchandise ticket, with Bill Engen being the lucky winner. Mrs. Carruthers served a delicious lunch to conclude the evening's program.

MODEL WITH A MODEL:

Pretty Ann Martin of Montreal takes time out to pose with a seven-foot, nine-inch model of a deHavilland jet aircraft which will go into service on Canadian Pacific Airlines' trans-Pacific service this year. Displayed at Windsor Station, Montreal, the $15,000 model will go on tour to Winnipeg, Vancouver, and Honolulu, in addition to appearing at the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto this year. Of plastic and metal construction, it has a wingspan of nine feet seven inches, with rubber-tired wheels on a retractable undercarriage which can be operated by hand to fold into the belly of the aircraft. A removable panel in the side displays the interior of the model which consists of crew compartment, showing pilot and co-pilot seat in front of a detailed control panel. The wireless operator's dials and range sets are aligned in one corner while the navigator's working table is shown in the other. The next section shows lounge room. The lounge section which accommodates two sets of four chairs has tables with folding leaves, while the body contains 28 reclining chairs, with the hand-luggage rack overhead. The sectional view of the rear compartments discloses ladies' and men's washrooms and the service compartment of the stewardesses which is located at the rear of the aircraft.

Milo Couple Wed at Calgary

Thomson - Anderson

A very pretty afternoon wedding was solemnized at Wesley United church, Calgary, on March 27, when Bernice, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Anderson was united in marriage with Mr. Joseph M. Thomson, second son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Thomson, all of Milo.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. L. Lawson, before a candlelit altar decorated with pink tulips and white carnations.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a wedding gown of white satin with long lily-point sleeves, round neck line and fitted bodice. The full skirt featured white satin roses and ended in a slight train. Her long veil was held in place by a coronet of beaded white satin. She carried a bouquet of red roses and white nicotine and wore as jewelry a three-strand pearl necklace with matching pearl earrings.

Marlene Anderson as bridesmaid, wore a robin-egg-blue, net over tulle dress, with a shoulder-length veil held in place by a halo. She carried pink roses and white carnations.

The groom was attended by his brother Ian Thomson, and guests were ushered to their pews by Robble Thomson and Larry Fleming.

The bride's mother wore a blue grey suit with navy accessories and a corsage of red roses, while the groom's mother wore a light blue printed silk dress with navy accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

Mr. Harold Ramsay played the wedding music, and during the signing of the register Mrs. Brown sang "I'll Walk Beside You."

Following the wedding ceremony a reception for 60 guests was held at the Harris Sky room. The bride's table was centred by a three-tiered wedding cake surrounded by pink rosebuds.

Toast to the bride was proposed by R. C. Umschied, replied to by the groom and was followed by a few words from Rev. Lawson.

For going away the bride changed to a teal blue suit with pink accessories, and an orchid corsage. She wore a rhinestone necklace and earrings, a gift of the groom. Following a honeymoon in the States the young couple will reside in Milo.

Eurt, Iowa, and Emma Zankie of Algona, Iowa, were married April 8th, 1902 at Algona and are now residents of Minot, N. Dakota, having resided at their married life in this state. They were parents of two sons, Raymond, who with his family lives at Dickinson, N.D., where he is supervisor of the State Experiment Farm. The younger son, Lawrence, who was a pilot instructor died in the service of his country in 1949. Mr. and Mrs. Douglass have two grand children.

New Amendment Announced

No Closed Season This Year on S. Alta. Fishing

There will be no closed season this year on fishing for trout, grayling and Rocky Mountain whitefish from the international boundary north to, and including the Bow River and its tributaries.

This was one of the amendments to the Alberta fishing regulations announced today by Hon. N. E. Tanner, Minister of Lands and Forests. The amendments are effective April 1.

Regulations governing the open seasons for trout, grayling and Rocky Mountain whitefish in other Alberta waters have not been changed and fishing in the watersheds of the Red Deer and North Saskatchewan Rivers will open May 1 and close Sept. 30.

Fishing season in waters of the Athabasca River watershed will be June to Oct. 15, but there will be no closed season in the McLeod River and its tributaries. Fishing season for lake trout is May 16 to September 15.

A change has been made in the daily limit of trout. The daily creel limit for trout this year will be 20 pounds although 15 fish, comprising a mixed catch of trout, grayling and Rock Mountain whitefish or 15 fish of one of these species, may be caught daily, as in the previous year. Only ten lake trout a day may be caught.

The number of pike, pickerel, perch and goldeye which may be caught daily has not been changed and limits are: pike and pickerel, 15 fish of one species only or 15 fish in the aggregate; perch and goldeye, 25 fish of one species only, or 25 fish in the aggregate; pike, pickerel, perch and goldeye, 25 fish in the aggregate.

Some waters in southern Alberta are closed to fishing until further notice. These waters have been set apart for the natural and artificial propagation of trout. Angling posters and 1952 angling regulations have been prepared and are being distributed.

The Fisheries Branch has requested the help of all anglers in forwarding tags from all marked fish to the Fisheries Branch, Edmonton or to a district fish guardian. The branch would appreciate details on the locality and date of capture of the fish, length, weight, sex, and samples of the scales from the side of the body above the lateral side and below the dorsal fin.

Brownies Donate to Easter Seal Fund

The 1st Vulcan Brownie Pack held a Mothers' and Friends' night March 28th, in the I.O.O.F. hall.

Mrs. Arthur Grove, the Brownie leader spoke on what a mother can do to assist her daughter for the work and tests, and what a leader must accomplish in training a Brownie Pack.

A mock fashion show was displayed by the Brownies, who carried out this part of the program very well.

Three Golden Bars were awarded and Brownie fudge sold, during the program. The $11.85 realized from the sale of this candy will be sent to the Crippled Children Easter Seal fund, in Calgary. The Vulcan Brownies are to be commended on their efforts to lend and hand to those less fortunate than themselves.

Mrs. John O'Connell, the Girl Guide captain, assisted the Brownies in their candy sale.

Red Cross Fund Nears Objective

Contributions are continuing to roll in to Vulcan and district campaign offices according to P. A. Thomson, Chairman of the local Red Cross Campaign and the amount collected to date is $1,575.00. Quota for this area is set at $1,700.00, and the Campaign will continue until the quota is reached.

With a Provincial quota of 400,000 and Red Cross pledged to spend $600,000 in Alberta in 1952, curtailment of Red Cross services would follow should the Provincial Campaign fall short. Included in the $600,000 is the nationally-sponsored Blood Transfusion Service and a capital expenditure of $92,000 for a new Clinic Building in Edmonton. At the present time, Red Cross offices in Edmonton are scattered throughout the city.

No phase of the Red Cross program can safely be allowed to lapse. The Blood Transfusion Service, work for crippled children, swimming and water safety, Junior Red Cross, disaster relief, civilian defence and work for civilian war refugees must continue.

"If you have not already given your contribution to Red Cross, then please do so immediately, to ensure that the work of mercy never ends."

Hunters Plan Farmers Aid

A plan to protect farmers from severe crop damage by ducks was outlined at a recent meeting of the Alberta Fish and Game Association's migratory birds crop damage committee.

Preventive measures suggested would include the use of lure crops, tried successfully in Saskatchewan; planting of suitable aquatic plants in sloughs to hold ducks, as has been done in a number of sloughs and small lakes by Ducks Unlimited; pre-season blanket shooting permitting farmers to get as many shooters as they wish when crop damage is being done.

It would also be requested that hunters be granted the use of dogs; effective scareways, and herding or hazing of ducks after the end of the shooting season. Smoke bombs would be used to break up concentrations of ducks and accelerate migration.

Duck damage crop insurance was suggested where all preventive measures have been used and have not been effective. To determine whether insurance would be a suitable answer, a survey will be made of the extent of crop damage last year and to find out how many farmers would be willing to insure themselves against loss if a workable insurance plan could be set up - Calgary Herald.

Civil Defence Fire Training

A training school for civil defence instructors from Calgary and district fire departments will be held at Calgary April 14-19. Two members of each fire department or brigade in the district, preferably the chief and a fireman suitable for instructor's duties, are eligible to attend.

Delegates to the Calgary school must register with the Provincial Fire Commissioner, Administration Building, Edmonton by April 7. The provincial government will pay transportation costs and from the school and will provide subsistence to all trainees for the six-day course. Training manuals, equipment and protective clothing will be provided.

CIVIL DEFENCE BADGE

Shown above is the new Civil Defence Badge which will be issued shortly to all certified members of Alberta civil defence groups. The badge is of gift with the initials C.D., for civil defence, set on either side of the official

Former Resident of Brant Honored as "Oregon Mother"

A letter from Mrs. Laura Bullack of Parkdale, Oregon, encloses a clipping from the Portland, Oregonian concerning Mrs. A. C. McIntyre, who, with her husband, homesteaded south of Brant in the early days.

Announcing that Mrs. McIntyre had been chosen as "Oregon Mother for 1952", the clipping reads:

Selection of Mrs. A. C. McIntyre of Pendleton as Oregon Mother for 1952 was announced Thursday by Governor Douglas McKay. Mrs. McIntyre was selected for this honor by the governor's Oregon mother committee of the American mother committee for the Golden Rule foundation, as exemplifying the finest attributes of a mother, homemaker and citizen as well as her wide and varied interests on the local and state level. She is a former state president of the State Federation of Women's Clubs and has played a prominent part in Presbyterian church work.

Mrs. McIntyre is the widow of A. C. McIntyre, attorney and former district attorney of Umatilla county, who died in 1944. Her three daughters, Mrs. Ralph Cook, Mrs. John Hale and Mrs. William Johnson, all live in Pendleton.

A native of Oregon, her maiden name was Frankie Cauthorn. Cauthorn Hall, on the campus of Oregon State college, Corvallis, is named after her father. She received her BA degree at Oregon State college.

Presentation of a certificate designating Mrs. McIntyre as Oregon Mother of 1952 will be made by Governor McKay at a luncheon tentatively scheduled for April 26. Early Brant residents will remember that Mr. McIntyre was manager of the old Brant store.

We Should Be Proud

Canadians, as a people, are tinged with an overabundance of humility, modesty or plain inferiority complex when they consider their own achievements.

They tend to apologize for conditions and developments here and to regard accomplishments in Britain and the United States as something beyond the capabilities of this nation. Too often they take the attitude that nothing good can come out of Canada.

Humility is doubtless good in its place, but so is pride, and Canadians have much of which they should be proud.

While still retaining the right of constructive criticism, Canadians should be proud of their democratic government which, in a world tending to extremes, has trod a middle of the road path. They should be proud of the freedom that is theirs, of the rights and privileges that have been handed down in trust from previous generations. They should be proud of their place (a prominent one) in the British Commonwealth under the sovereignty of their Liege Lady, Queen Elizabeth II.

Canadians are living in an expansionist age, a period in the nation's history when great developments are taking place in the country. Canada, for instance, produces half of the world's supply of newsprint, the second largest export wheat crop, 90 per cent of the free world's supply of nickel and an important part of the zinc, copper, aluminum and other materials needed for the defence of the west. Vast developments are under way in oil, iron, uranium, industry, electrical power. Last year Canadians invested some 22 per cent of their national income in new developments. Foreign capital is flowing into the country and more and more Canadian capital is being utilized to develop the natural resources and industry of the nation.

Canadians may well be proud, too, of awakened interest in the arts. Across the land music festivals, drama festivals, art exhibits, ballet festivals, show that this new nation is not neglecting the finer things of life. More and more Canadians are aware of the fact that "culture" is not something for highbrows but may be enjoyed by everyone. Good music via the radio and performances of symphonies, choirs and soloists is becoming part of the daily living of millions of Canadians. Canadians are writing books, plays and poetry, are painting and composing as never before.

The second half of the twentieth century belongs to Canada. As Churchill said last month in Ottawa, "Upon the whole surface of the globe, there is no more spacious and splendid domain than Canada open to the activity and genius of free men." Let us then be proud of what our nation of 14 million souls has accomplished, is accomplishing and will accomplish. We should be proud of Canada.

Seed Grain is Available

Due to extremely unfavorable weather conditions last fall, a large percentage of the grain harvested was not fit for seed. In many cases, the grain contained too much moisture to make seed and in others frost damage and immaturity contributed to the low germination. However, there is seed grain available in most districts or in districts not too far distant. We have in this office, a good listing of seed available that is suitable for seed. Some of this grain was harvested in 1950, and some was harvested early in the fall of 1951. before it was subjected to the extremely wet conditions and unfavorable weather that prevailed during the normal harvest season.

This spring the use of good sound weed-free seed, that is pure as to variety is even more important than it was 3 or 4 years ago. The margin between the cost of producing grain and the selling price is becoming less and less due to the high costs of production, over which the farmer has little control. It is becoming increasingly important for the grain farmer to farm as efficiently as possible. Efficient farming entails the most economic use of land, equipment, labor and materials. The average yields a farm can be made to produce are of greatest importance to the farmer concerned and probably contributed more than any other factor to the success or failure of the farm business. Good seed combined with good cultural practices and general sound farm management does play an important part in assisting to maintain a satisfactory yield.

Even top quality seed should be given a recommended seed treatment to destroy any spores of stinking smut that may be present. It should be kept in mind too that the mecurial dusts give the young seedlings added protection from the root rots and seedling blight. Formaldehyde should not be used, especially in seed that has been bran frosted or badly weathered, as it tends to have a definite detrimental effect on the germinating power of all seed especially seed that is not first class.

Anyone who has had difficulty in locating seed is invited to make use of the lists available at this office. If arrangements have not been completed for seed requirements, definite action should be taken immediately.

Farm Value Goes Up!

"SAY NEIGHBOR!

How much did it cost you to get your farm electrified?"

"WELL... the way I look at it, it didn't cost me a red cent!

I look on it as an investment... like a new barn... or a new house. It increased the value of my farm by more than double the amount I invested in line construction costs and building wiring costs... that's what the real estate man tells me."

now that I know how much Reddy can do for me by—increasing production, saving time and labour, and helping my wife in the home—I wouldn't be without the power if it cost me five times as much as it did.

Miss Ruth Marshman, a popular bride-elect whose marriage takes place on Thursday, April 3, was the guest of honor on Saturday, March 29, when 85 ladies of the town and district gathered at the Community Hall to present her with many lovely and useful gifts.

The Hall was decorated in spring colors, as Miss Marshman's chair. The entertainment took the form of a review of Ruth's life from the baby-carriage to the present time. The gifts were presented to the guest of honor in a decorated Easter Egg drawn by Allen McLeod dressed as an Easter Bunny. Miss Marshman was assisted in opening her gifts by her sister-in-law, Mrs. H. Marshman and Mrs. Cliff Marshman. Miss Marshman, in a few well-chosen words, thanked the ladies for being so kind. The hostesses then served a delicious lunch of sandwiches, cake and coffee.

Miss LaRue Causey who has been a patient in the Vulcan Hospital is convalescing at her home in Champion.

Mrs. Harry Smith is a patient in the Carmangay Hospital.

Chuck Anderson, who has been a patient in the Carmangay Hospital returned to his home on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Matlock and family who have been residing in Calgary, have returned to their home here.

Fred Wise who was a patient in the Vulcan Hospital for several days last week has returned home.

Mrs. Edith Repp and two children are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lebsack.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Lebsack and Mrs. Henry Lebsack were Calgary visitors last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hegland were Lethbridge visitors Saturday.

The regular monthly meeting of the W.A. was held at the home of Mrs. Tim Barry on Thursday, March 27, with 20 members and three visitors present. Roll call was answered with a household hint. Final plans were made for the Easter Tea and Fashion Show to be held on Saturday, April 5, in the Community Hall. A Mother's Day party is to be held in the Community Hall on May 8, with each member to bring a friend.

The next meeting is to be at the home of Mrs. R. Maxwell, on Thursday, April 24. Mrs. Barry was assisted in serving a delicious lunch by Mrs. C. Miller.

Mrs. Fred Cartwright has accepted the position of Secretary-Treasurer of the Champion Community Hall, her duties to commence April 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. Tim Barry had as their guests over the week-end, Mr. John Williams of Whiskey Gap, and George Williams and Miss Kay Hadford of Picture Butte.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Caldwell and family accompanied by Mrs. D. Caldwell spent the weekend visiting in Browning, Mont.

Mrs. Ray Warren

Funeral services for Mrs. Ray (Bessie Jane) Warren were held in the Champion Community Hall Monday, March 31. Rev. Fosmark of Taber delivered the sermon.

Mrs. Warren was born in Anderson, Mo., and moved to Champion in 1921. She died at the age of 54 in a Lethbridge hospital. She is survived by her husband, a daughter Norma Jane, of Champion, a brother of Anderson, Mo., two sisters, Grace of Anderson, Mo., and Maude of Morins, Calif.

Pallbearers were Albert Orcutt, Oscar Sletto, Clayton Sletto, Oscar Hagg, Otto Hagg and Mike Beingsner.

Seed Treatments

Most seeds carry plant disease germs, and in order to reduce the loss from these diseases it is important that seed should first be given a thorough cleaning with the fanning mill to remove stems, chaff, etc. which carry infection, then the only way to deal with the impurities which are lodged in the seed, and cannot be removed by mechanical means, is to treat the seed with chemicals.

Until about 20 years ago, not much change was made in formal treatments, up to that time Formaldehyde and Copper Sulphate (Bluestone) solution were the treatments in general use.

About that time Organic Mercury in the form of dust was found to be very effective in the control of most diseases and is now the most popular treatment. Copper Carbonate dust was used for burn or stinking smut of Wheat, but it does not give satisfactory control of the smuts of coarse grains—covered smut of Barley and covered and loose smut of Oats, also it is not volatile and has little penetrating ability as well as the disadvantage of collecting in the bottom of the seeder, causing wear and sometimes breakage of the mechanism.

Formaldehyde causes considerable seed injury. It has been found that seedlings of seed treated with Formaldehyde suffer more from seedling blight than do those of untreated seed. The seed is weakened and has less resistance to disease. The yield and quality of the crop is consistently lower.

Formaldehyde treated seed must be seeded within a day or two or severe loss in germination may occur.

Copper Sulphate (Bluestone) also causes serious seed injury and is no longer used much.

Some Sulphur compounds have been tried, but like Copper Carbonate they are only effective in the control of bunt of Wheat.

The first consideration in a seed treatment is its ability to control diseases, without causing seed injury. The Mercurials qualify in both respects, furthermore they have a delayed action which gives the necessary protection to seed, from soil fungi which robs the seed of plant food when it is most needed. Also the Mercurials protect the seed from recontamination which may occur from its contact with grain sacks, wagon boxes, granary floors, or seed drills.

Numerous cracks occur in seed when it is threshed. Micro-organisms get into these cracks and retard or destroy the germination. Mercurial treatments protect the seed from these attacks, and allow it to germinate and develop without any setbacks.

This is clearly illustrated in some tests that are now being run with some of this season's 2 Northern Wheat—some treated with Leytosa, some not treated, both planted (50 seeds) in soil. On the sixth day only one untreated seed showed through, while of the treated seed 27 were above ground on the 12th day 46 untreated seeds were up but very uneven, some were twice as tall as others, while 43 treated seeds were up, all even and an inch taller than the others, thus we have an improvement of 6 per cent in the emergency and a nice even plant.

No one expects to turn poor seed into good seed by Mercurial treatment, but the effect on good

AMERICANS WANT CENTURIANS

Lt.-Col. Sir Guy Lowther, just returned from fighting in Korea, says that "the whole world is awakening to the fact that Britain can produce the best tanks—In Korea, the Americans want Centurians. They used to say, 'What wouldn't we do with a tank like that.' In one action two Centurians took on 5,000 Chinese who came down the road three abreast like a crowd leaving a football match. During another battle 26 Centurians and 26 American tanks were blown up by Chinese mines. All the Centurians drove off under their own power."

Canada's national parks system comprises 26 separate units with a total area of 29,000 square miles.

There are more than 130,000 Canadians of North American Indian race, among whom are successful farmers, ranchers, lumbermen, fishermen and trappers.

Hemlock is one of Canada's slower growing trees. It may take 100 to 200 years to reach maturity.

Retail grocery sales in Canada during the first quarter of 1951 were up 16.6 per cent over the same period of 1950.

THOUSANDS OWN STORAGE TANKS THEY'RE FUEL-WISE

A STORAGE TANK PAYS 4 WAYS

1. GAINS TIME—You're never stuck for fuel. There's always enough to do a good day's work in those busy seasons when every hour counts. Gives you a handy supply in any season. Filling is no chore. Gravity flow is quicker than pumping, too.
2. KEEPS FUEL CLEAN—Helps prevent stoppages and costly delays in the field due to fuel line troubles in your tractor. You can't beat a storage tank for keeping diesel fuel clean.
3. PREVENTS WASTE—Fuel is easily spilled or left in the bottom of the barrel whether you pour from a barrel or use a pump. A storage tank practically eliminates this waste.
4. LESSENS FIRE HAZARD—Gasoline in any farm building is dangerous. A storage tank located at the right distance from buildings complies with fire insurance regulations.
